Welcome back to another incredible summer with our two-week musical theatre camp. Students will receive training in the core elements of singing, acting and dancing, culminating in a final Friday evening performance of Seussical Jr., based on the books of Dr. Seuss.

The camp includes ten days of direction under Sarah D'Cunha and Alyssa Minichillo, as well as short workshops with various other artists, including percussionist Dave Lowe. Students will be provided with their own script and score. Ages 7-15; all levels welcome.

Introducing Alyssa: Alyssa is a graduate of the Randolph Academy for the Performing Arts. She is thrilled to join the creative team at Camp Carswell, and looks forward to meeting the talented campers.

Selected Credits: Cinderella in Into The Woods (Randolph Theatre/Tim French), Thumbelina in Thumbelina (Little Red Theatre), April in The Life (Call It A Day Productions), Mannequin Girl in #MannequinGirl: The Musical (2016 Toronto Fringe).
